Brent and I have always been very particular about the bulls we raise. We wouldn't sell one that we wouldn't use ourselves. We choose bulls by the quality of their dams as much as their sires. We've watched this young bull since he was born. He obviously has the color, but more importantly he has checked all the boxes when it comes to genetics, size, structure, soundness and disposition. We bred his dam and granddam and we used Ringa
